FOR REFERENCE ONLY

Not to be taken from this room

You would measure time
the measureless and immeasurable.
You would adjust your conduct and even direct
the course of your spirit
according to hours and seasons.
Of time you would make a stream
upon whose banks
you would sit
and watch its flowing.

Yet the timeless in you
is aware of life's timelessness And knows that yesterday is but today's memory
and tomorrow is today's dream.
And is not time even as love is,
undivided and paceless?
But if in your thoughts
you must measure time into seasons,
let each season
encircle all other seasons,
And let today embrace the past with remembrance
and the future
with longing.

Autumn . . page fourteen

Winter . . . page fifty-six

Spring . . . page one hundred and thirty

To everything
there is a season
and a time for every purpose
under heaven.

A time to be born,
a time to die...

a time to laugh . . .

a time to mourn . . .

a time to plant . . .

a time to reap . . .

a time to embrace . . .

a time to refrain from embracing . . .

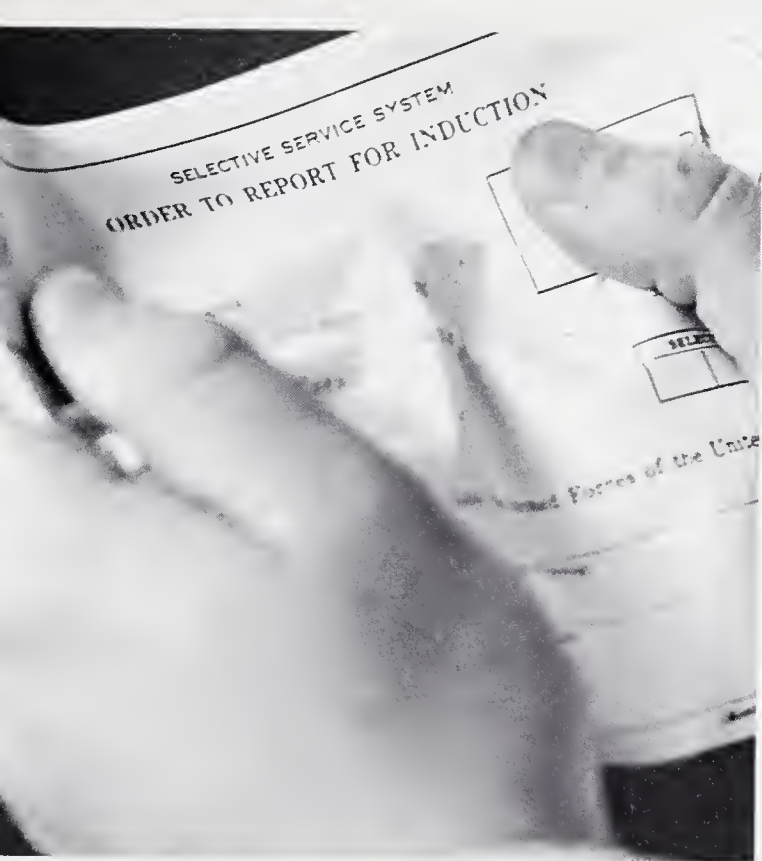

a time to love . . .

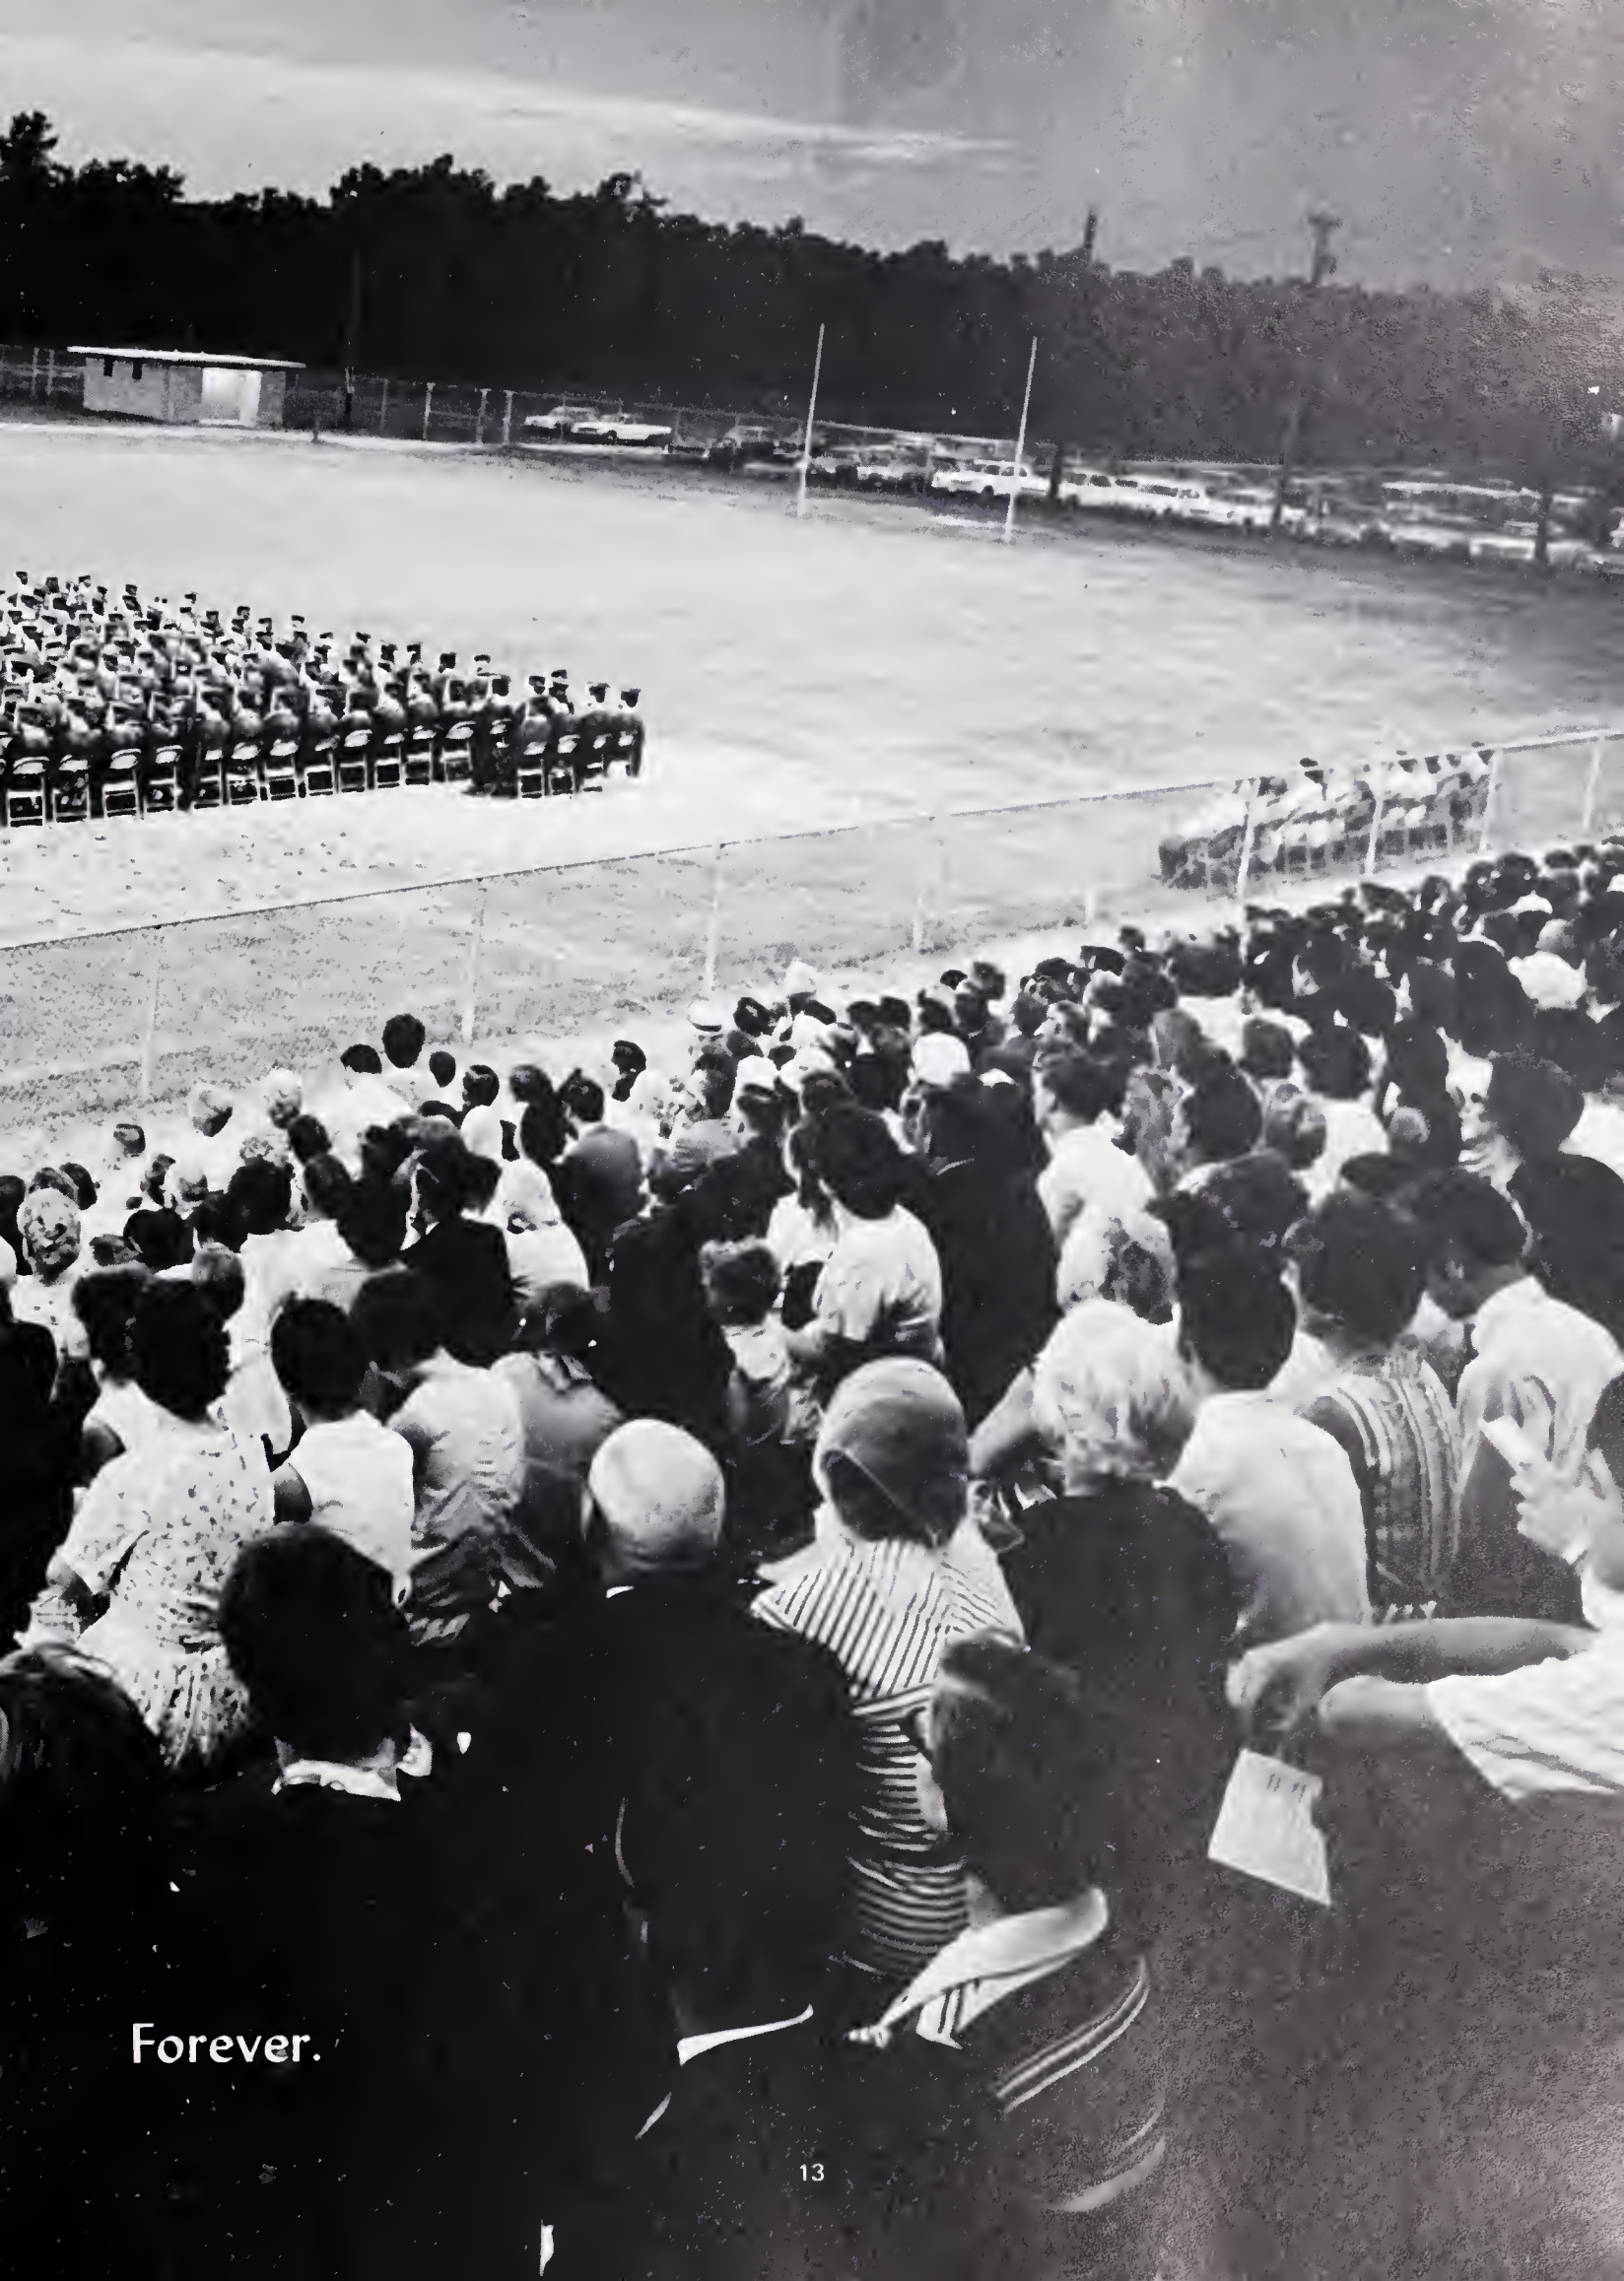

a time to hate . . .

a time to remember . . .

Forever.

Autumn . . .

I saw
the starry tree
Eternity
put forth
the blossom time.

Opening day at the school
 finds the class of '72
 trying to look suave instead of bewildered.
 Questions, blunders, discoveries —
 "I'm sorry, but you're in the wrong line,"
 and so they learned to mold
 their fingers
 to the panic button.
 "Where do I find . . . ?
 Hurry up and wait.
 HELP!
 Anxious eyes peering over a stack
 of new books.
 "Do not fold, spindle, or mutilate . . ."

Opening day of school . . .

. . . a time for new promises.

These key men,
though rarely seen,
are strongly felt
in this establishment called a school.

Superintendents and Advisory Council,

individuals of various skills
and professions,
have a single goal of helping the school become a dominating influence on the people of Southern Wayne.

Principal Jimmy Williams

in his fourth year at Southern Wayne not only fulfilled the basic requirements for the job of principal but also added a personal element in his dignity, sense of humor, and genuine desire to help the students and faculty in any way that he possibly could.

The growth of the career of Mr. Jimmy Williams exemplifies strength. While Southern Wayne graduated its first class of four-year students, she watched a leader graduate to higher degrees of accomplishment. During the four-year history of Southern Wayne High School, Mr. Williams has grown from classroom teacher to assistant principal to principal.

Assistant Principal Russ Cotton

is a prime example of the character trait "understanding."

As he approaches each day, he faces the tasks awaiting him with the other fellow's benefits in mind.

Mr. Cotton has that inert ability to fit into all walks of school life. During the year, he won the respect and admiration of students and faculty.

He could feel their problems and react to them in a mature, adult manner.

Preparing the daily bulletins, keeping custody of school organizations' funds, filling out purchase orders, typing, filing, answering phone calls, greeting guests; these are but a few of the many and diverse duties of our

Office Staff.

Planning schedules,

administering tests, and aiding students in solving their problems were only a few of the many tasks the Guidance Counselors confronted.

But even though the job involved so much work, the counselors received rewarding feelings from knowing they had helped people to discover the course of action which would lead to personal success.

Miss Ruth Gardner: Counselor

Roger Holloman: Counselor

Doris Gurley: Wayne County NCEA President; Jean Hollowell: Wayne County NCEA Secretary.

Edna Wilson: Participant in Pinecrest Laboratory Project.

Arzie Mason: Area Business Teachers Secretary; Sandra Bunn: Eastern District NCEA Business Teachers Secretary, Liaison Committee Secretary.

Raeford Daughtry: Wayne County Vocational Agricultural Teachers Public Relations Committee; R. K. Jernigan: Wayne County Vocational Agricultural Teachers Chairman, District III Vice President.

BUILDING REPRESENTATIVES: Roger Holloman, Chairman; Alice Swann, R. K. Jernigan, Gaye Adams.

Interest is the best word to describe

the faculty—

interest in the student and his endeavors. This interest was displayed through actions as club and class advisors, tutors, and leaders.

Even as leaders, they strove to improve themselves—accepting various offices, attending workshops, seminars, etc.

Indeed, the faculty of Southern Wayne should be honored, because they have helped so many students adjust to life.

School Personnel

This group of dedicated people could best be described as unsung heroes.

They included the nurses, the cafeterial assistants, the custodians, and the bus drivers.

Through their efforts, Southern Wayne was able to keep functioning smoothly.

CUSTODIANS: David Armstrong, Katherine Ward, and Robert Ezzell (Head).

Under the leadership of President Macon Massey, the Student Council sought not only to work for the student body, but also to work through, and thereby to speak for, all areas of the school. Steps were taken to increase and maintain student interest and participation in Student Council activities. Evidence of this interest was seen through the success of the magazine drive, homecoming, and the candy sale for the AFS program.

Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps

served as preparation for a future as an Air Force officer for many of our male students. Although the Air Force ROTC program stressed academics, it also placed great importance on physical conditioning. With the installment of the second year of the three-year program, emphasis was placed on the individual cadet. He was enabled to excel in academic and military leadership — the type of leadership needed to protect this nation.

LEADERS: M-Sgt. Robert DeGrechie (NCO and drill sergeant), Major Tim Dale (squadron commander), Captain Kent Sasser (squadron executive officer), Lt. Col. Harold Howard (head of program).

The Cadet Courier, a potpourri of news, activities, and projects of the AF-ROTC unit, was first published this year.

In crisp uniforms, and spit-shined shoes, the second-year cadets marched in the Veterans' Day Parade in Mount Olive and the Goldsboro Christmas Parade.

A stunning new look, a vibrant new sound of the Southern Wayne Band under the leadership of its new director, Edward L. Mason, and Band Boosters' President, Dr. Burkette Raper, seemed to have a completely new and unique style and personality this year.

This new change was evident in the half times, pep rallies, and parade performances. School concerts and a spring concert tour featured a wide variety of selections from pops to classical music.

Majorettes, who sparkled their way through routines, led the band.

A little changed, a little improved, they added a look of quality to a growing school.

"1-2-3-4 ROCKET!"

The swinging sounds of the Pep Band aided the cheerleaders in boosting the spirit of the spectators at the basketball games.

Football

A rugged sport designed for men;
every game a grueling struggle as victory, that illusive bird, took flight and
defeat, its scorn descended.
Cowards cringe before the scorn;
only men stand to fight.
In some, courage is hard to find,
for the star of victory
slipped out of sight.
For a team that wins
and attains the throne,
then glory speeds their journey.
For a team that loses,
there is no throne —
only nerve can keep them going.
They get no awards,
for some say they deserve
nothing.
They have lost
and shall reap their due, but one thing can be said of them,
"They had guts and raw courage."

Friday was the night of pretending

that Monday would never come. It was staying up late and maybe being a little "high," and cheering your hardest at the football game. There you huddled close with blankets and umbrellas to keep the icy rain from dampening your own spirit. People stood for the kick-off. Cheerleaders waved blue and white pom-poms and kept the spirit soaring. Just as your hands went numb, the game was over.

Students rushed to the gymnasium, refusing to believe that their week of frenzied excitement was fast coming to a close. There they were entertained by the music of the Expressions until midnight. After Sunday, to recuperate, Southern Wayne's students turned back to the books and tossed wilted white mums into the wastebasket.

Bright lights on Broadway

fascinated sixteen of the Southern Wayne journalism students as they made their way through the crowded streets of New York City.

Many rode the subways for the first time traveling to and from their classes at Columbia University. Before and after classes, the students attended such events as an all-day tour of the city, a Broadway play, the NIT at Madison Square Garden, and the Easter program at Radio City Music Hall. The conference ended with a Luncheon at the exquisite Waldorf-Astoria.

Sponsored by Mrs. Doris Gurley
and Miss Eva Nan Summerlin,

the Quill and Scroll

is an honorary organization for high school journalists.

This year, the main project of the society was the broadcasting of a weekly radio program on station
WDJS in Mount Olive.

The highlight of the year
was the annual spring banquet.

The speech by Mr. Eugene Price, Managing Editor of the Goldsboro News-Argus, was entertaining
and enjoyed by all.

Next door the human adding machines are busily at work. Across the hall the class is in a heated argument over what "x" is. Here in the Math Department students are acquiring knowledge which will greatly aid them in the future.

The Math Club

is designed to further interest in mathematics and to reveal career opportunities in the field of math.

Projects of this year's group included making bulletin boards for the Math Club advisors and devising multiplication tables for the special education students. They also made a polar graph for the math department. Student teachers at Southern Wayne lectured to the group on math courses in college.

OFFICERS: Sandy Siler, Mrs. Jelaine Dale, Advisors; Wilma Holland, President; Brent Allen, Vice President; Olivia King, Secretary; Billy Ams, Treasurer.

The Modern Music Masters

are honorary students enrolled in the music department of Southern Wayne. They must excel in both music and academic subjects. The club furthers music appreciation in the school and community. Members enjoyed various types of musical entertainment throughout the year. Equally enjoyable was the lecture on the music at Cherry Hospital.

OFFICERS: Edward Mason, Advisor; Sharon Strickland, President; Barbara Sauls, Vice President; Debbie Ledbetter, Secretary; Rose Edwards, Treasurer; Mary Jo Carson, Historian.

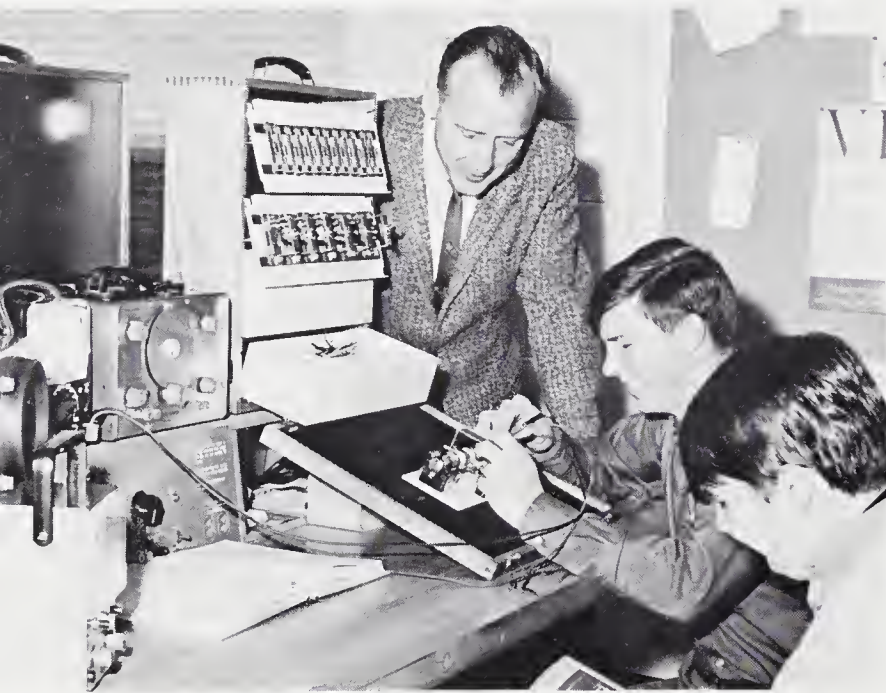

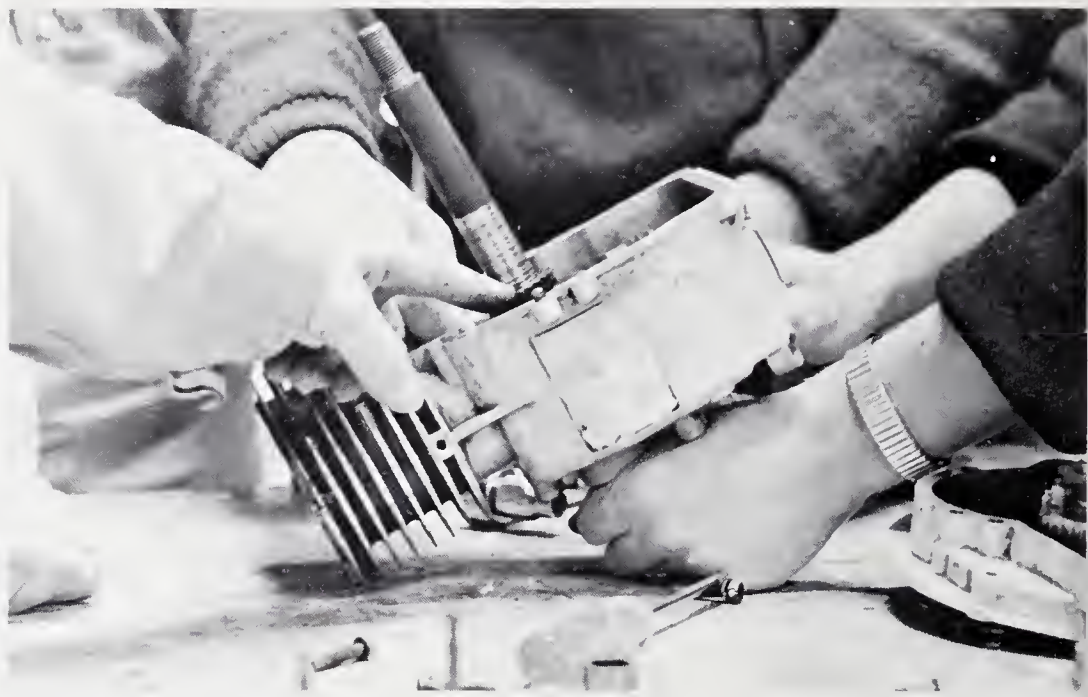

Concerts at Christmas and in the spring were only a part of the full job of the Music Department. Under the leadership of two new directors, Mrs. Vera Powell and Mr. Edward Mason, the programs ranged from modern music to jazz. Those who participated discovered that plenty of practice accompanies a good performance.

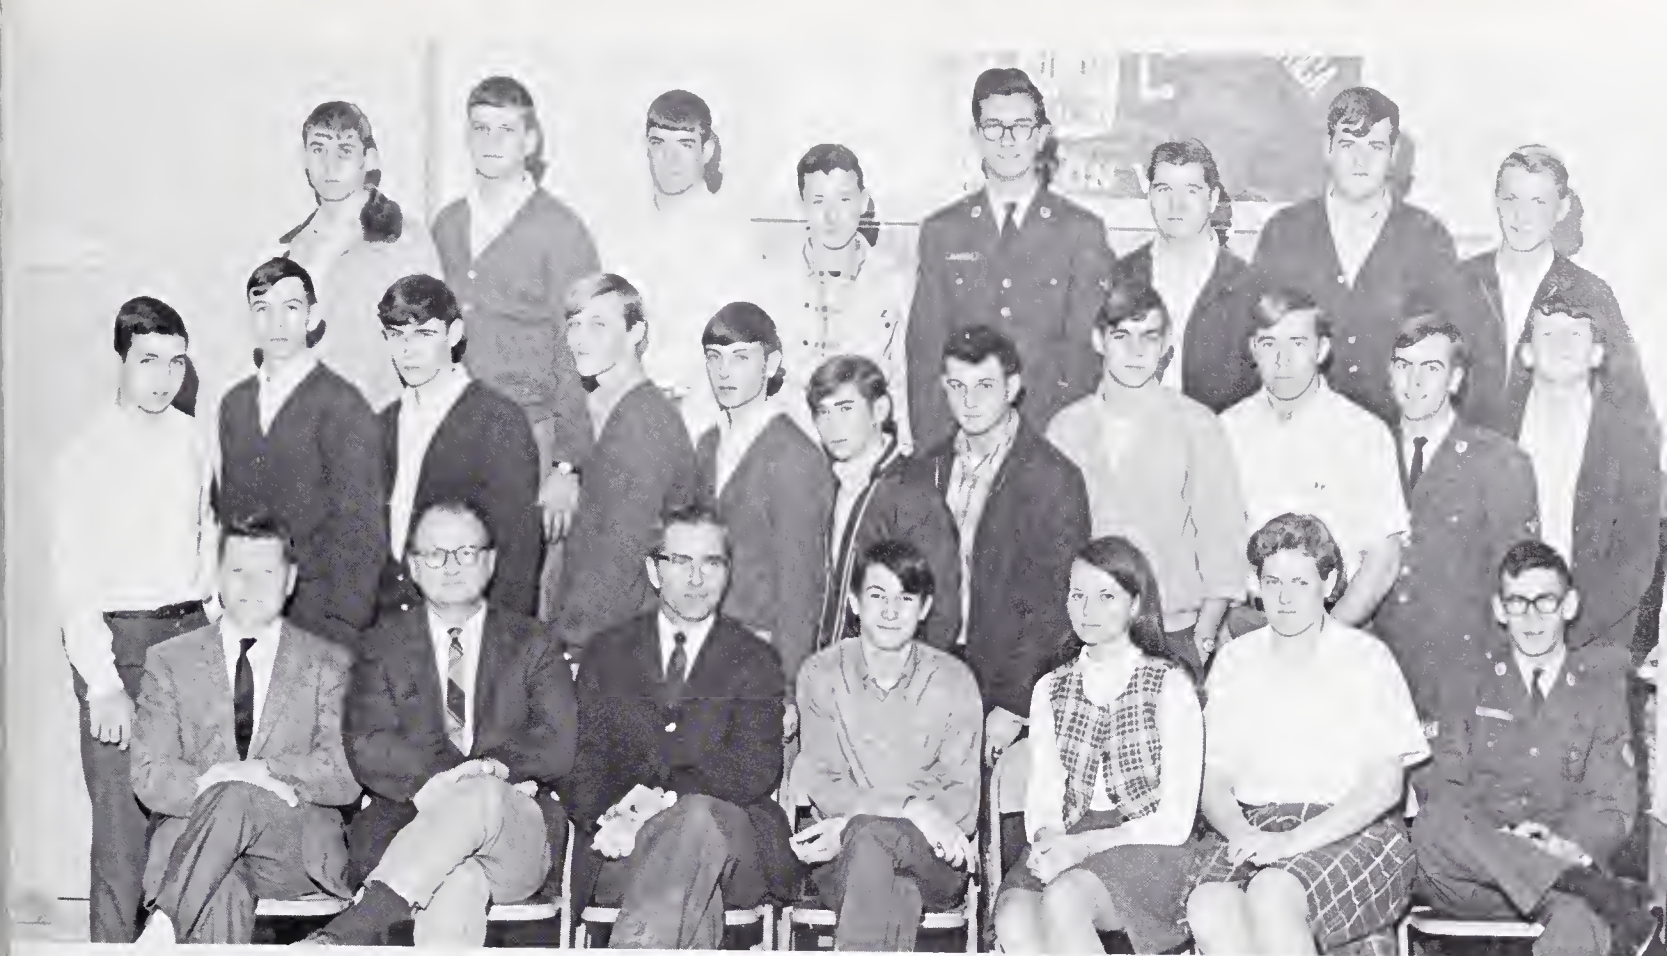

Upon entering the 300-wing of the building, one is greeted by the buzz of saws, the pounding of hammers, the roar of engines, and the pungent odor of sawdust. Here in the industrial workers of the future are busy perfecting skills which will aid them in achieving success in their chosen vocations.

OFFICERS: Leslie Thompson, Harry Cannaday, Henry Edwards, Advisors; David Turner, President; LaVeta Hinson, Secretary; Frank Grantham, Treasurer.

VICA

The purpose of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America is to aid individuals in preparing for roles in industry and community life. The club sponsored a road rally this year.

Those who participated benefited by gaining a more thorough knowledge of safe driving.

Two club members, Sallie Stevens and LaVeta Hinson, captured district and state honors in competition.

The Business Education Department

is responsible for training the typists, secretaries, and accountants of tomorrow. The department has an office preparatory course which is made up of students who are referred to as "Poo Secretaries."

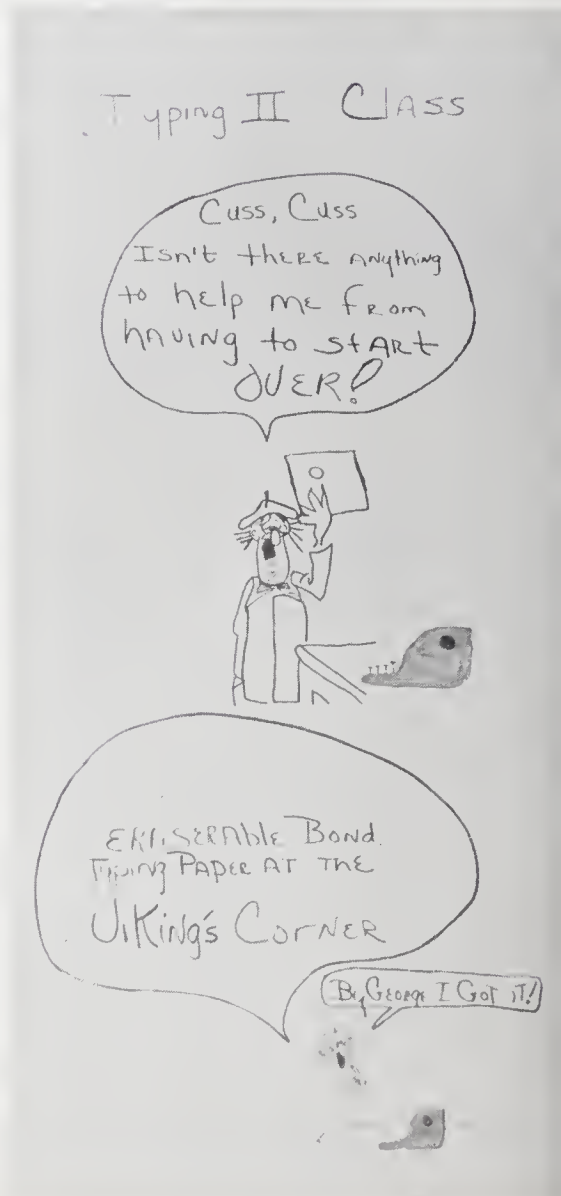

These students have a chance to apply what they have learned by assisting the faculty and administration as secretaries throughout the year.

Besides being responsible for teaching courses strictly on the business level, other courses such as personal typing and consumer math are taught.

The department was very fortunate in that the installation of electrical outlets in conjunction with the additional electrical typewriters aided in stressing the importance of business education.

The Future Business Leaders of America had

a busy year as students learned first-hand how business life really is. The members published the Student Directory, attended the FBLA Convention in Durham, distributed fruit baskets to the elderly, and went Christmas caroling at rest homes in Goldsboro. Gifts were presented to senior club members and business teachers at a cook-out at the end of the year.

OFFICERS: Miss Sandra Bunn, Mrs. Jean Hollowell, Advisors; Ruby Parks, President; Kathy Summerlin, Vice President; Linda King, Secretary; Lebra Hollowell, Treasurer; Maggie Ezzell, Historian; Sandra Kornegay, Reporter.

Future business leaders of tomorrow get their starts while still in high school through Distributive Education Clubs of America. The members promoted their interest in distribution through an exhibit at the Wayne County Fair, a float for the Goldsboro and Mount Olive Christmas parades, and an evaluation of retail sales personnel in Mount Olive. The club secured first place for the best non-professional float in the Goldsboro Christmas parade, and was the first place winner of the District Creative Marketing Award.

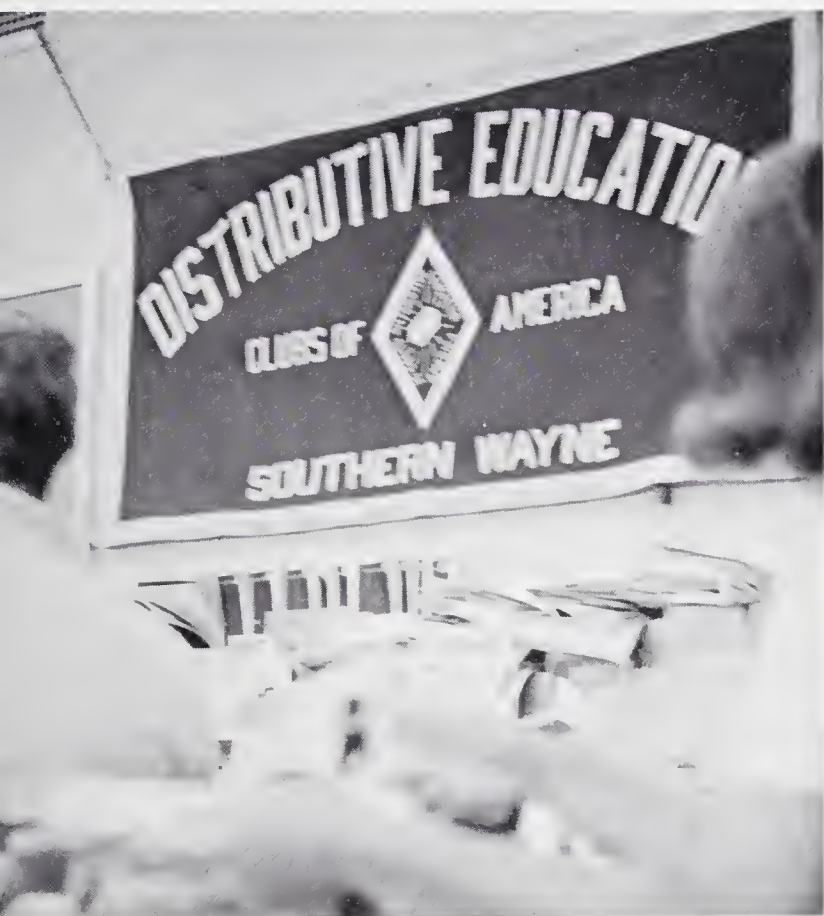

Participants in the

Distributive Education

program at Southern Wayne received practical instruction in job training in the classes of Mr. Terry McPherson. Supplementing these courses which took place every morning was the actual experience those members gained by holding jobs in the community. They discovered that this experience would later become increasingly important in attaining and maintaining future jobs.

“A healthy mind
in a healthy body”

ess on sports and physical activity is in high regard Southern Wayne.
day the value of Physical Education
courses is tremendous.
Students have learned how to exert effort possible,
how to show self-control
when losing and quiet dignity when winning.
Due to the efforts
of department head Jimmy Adams
a ninth-grade
physical education course
has been established.
Students found that PE
could be rewarding and enjoyable.

OFFICERS: Yancey Aycock, Advisor; Rose Blackman, President; Barbara Britt, Vice President; Virginia Greenfield, Secretary-Treasurer.

To meet with the rapid advances of the various fields of medicine, the

Health Careers Club

strove to meet the challenge by investigating and discussing the various available careers. The discussions were accompanied by films and guest speakers, among them the school nurse, Mrs. Ester Markham, who spoke on the history of nursing. One of the most interesting programs was presented by the student nurses from Lenoir Memorial Hospital including graduates from Southern Wayne.

Special Education students, under the direction of Mrs. Phyllis Grant, showed their creativity through the various handicrafts they made this year. During the Christmas season, they sold colorful decorations which they made from IBM cards. They also held an auction sale at which they sold other articles that they had made.

"Don't hit that cow!" "Slow down for this curve."

"Let's take a left up here."
These are typical of the remarks made daily by
Mr. Elton Aycock and Mr. Walter Stevens,
Driver's Education instructors.
Each day they valiantly risk their lives in an effort to teach students
safe and correct driving practices.
And are they rewarded? Yes!
How? By such headlines as "Southern Wayne student arrested for doing 90 in a 60 m.p.h. zone."

“Répondez à ma question en Français.”

Close your mind to English and enter a new world —
the world of France and its eloquent language.

The goal — international understanding.
The means — films, projects, and class participation.
The rewards — a deeper understanding of a different language, people, and culture;
and through such,
a more complete comprehension of our own cultural background.

OFFICERS: Mrs. Lois Sasser, Miss Kathleen Dail, Advisors; Janice Head, President; C. L. Sutton, Vice President; Valeria Olliver, Secretary; Roxie Massengill, Treasurer.

Though the words were foreign,
the tunes were unmistakable as shut-ins
listen to the joyful voices of the

French Club

proclaiming the glory and rapture of the Christmas season.
These students promoted enjoyment of the French language.
Projects done by French students were displayed in the school lobby
to further interest
in the language.

OFFICERS: Gene Brewer, Jimmy Adams, Advisors; Hain Ficken, President; Tommy Lamb, Vice President; Brenda Mitchell, Secretary; Jenny Howell, Treasurer.

The Monogram Club promoted good sportsmanship and developed a proper school spirit among all the students, while it recognized cheerleaders and athletes who have lettered in a major or minor sport. This year its functions were to park cars at football games, usher at basketball games, and sell tickets to all athletic events. Bill Ficken, honorary member, faithfully watched his fellow members in action through the year.

Blue and white buttons,

signs down every hall,
warm mittens,
heavy overcoats,
smiles at a winning game,
silence at a losing game,
all are familiar sights
that become a traditional part of the Pep Club.

New activities and responsibilities are added to the calendar
as an all-out spirit drive was begun.

Aided by the Pep Band,
the club strove
to keep spirit high
at all the games.

FFICERS: William Smith, Miss Bernice Barwick, Advisors; Steve Edwards, President; Tim Reeves, Vice President; Vickie Best, Secretary; Brenda itchell, Treasurer.

Led by Captain Worth Wilson, all conference and
all east honorable mention,
and Bobby Brimmage, all conference honorable mention, the

Varsity Basketball

team had a season that was marked with tremendous performances and bitter disappointments.
No excuses are given—
just sheer effort—
though all the breaks went the other way.
So people called it a building year and look forward to the new season.

Sophomores

Hurrah! No longer are they "dumb freshmen"; now, they beck to the title "Sophomores".

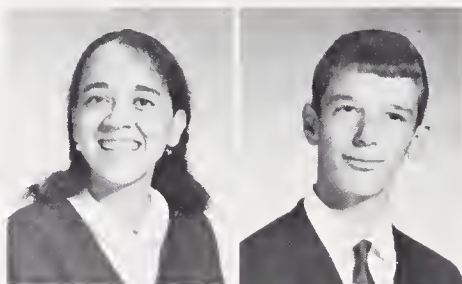

The highlight of the year for most of the class was taking part in the homecoming activities. Some class members worked as waiters and waitresses in the Junior-Senior prom.

Juniors

This year the Junior Class was the smallest class at Southern Wayne. This, however, did not stop them from winning first place in Homecoming competition and the magazine drive. They worked hard on the Junior-Senior Prom and their efforts were rewarded. The Juniors proved that determination counts more than size.

. . . ivory snowflakes

The unbearable

Communication and understanding are the keys to human survival.

Southern Wayne's English Department was dedicated not only to teaching the students the basic essentials of this fundamental principle, but also to expanding and searching into the background and meaning of language and literature.

The department radiated so much enthusiasm and understanding, that the students were inspired to do further reading and writing on their own.

The Hobbit, Walden, The Ugly American

were read and discussed by the Literary Club.

Sponsored by Mrs. Evelyn Kornegay,
Miss Ann Ward, and Mrs. Mary Morgan, the club was more active
this year
than ever before.
They studied techniques
on understanding
literature,
and enjoyed the poems
and music
of Rod McKuen.

FFICERS: Miss Ann Ward, Mrs. Mary Morgan, Mrs. Evelyn Kornegay, Advisors; C. L. Sutton, President; Jane Shackelford, Vice President; Katrina
iggins, Secretary-Treasurer.

OFFICERS: Miss Ann Ward, Mrs. Sharon Prince, Advisors; Dwight Grady, President; Valeria Olliver, Vice President; Wendy Crumpler, Secretary; Carolyn Swinson, Treasurer.

Though unable to present a play, the Epidaurian Players worked enthusiastically throughout the year. The club was divided into three groups to provide for more individual participation. Each group presented skits at the meetings. Some members visited various workshops throughout the state. Many members of the Drama Club were fortunate enough to attend the presentation of "Summertree" at East Carolina University.

"I promise to do my best . . ."

This is required of each candidate running for office. His best. These people, if elected, will have the responsibility of governing the school. The victors emerge proudly awaiting their tasks; the losers know they have fought a good battle.

SEX

Now that I have your attention
Vote Sue Williams for secretary!

OFFICERS: Mrs. Edna Wilson, Advisor; Carol Holmes, President; Ruby Parks, Vice President; Wilma Holland, Secretary; Bill Sutton, Treasurer; Steve Smith, Parliamentarian; Cassandra Wiggins, Historian; Mrs. Carol Jackson, Advisor.

The Future Teachers of America

received instruction and experience that aided them in developing readiness for college programs of teacher education. With the assistance of their advisors, FTA performed many services for teachers such as the tea, a skit presented to the faculty, and observing and teaching classes. FTA members had the opportunity to talk with student teachers at Southern Wayne and learned of their teaching experiences.

The Social Studies Department aided students

in recognizing their responsibilities in our municipal, state, and federal governments, and therefore, in world affairs. World history teachers promoted the study of other cultures. Geography was the study of lands and populations. Sociology and Civics students were geared to the discovery of society's structure.

United States history courses taught students the background, form, and problems of our country.

Movies such as "Fail Safe" and "1984" gave students glimpses of our possible future.

OFFICERS: Mrs. Elaine Moss, Mrs. Blonnie Warren, Advisors; Janice Head, Secretary-Treasurer; Tim Dale, President; Dwight Grady, Vice President

Serving as a unifying and governing body for clubs, the

Inter-Club Council
was composed of the presidents from each of Southern Wayne's clubs. The body acted as a "clearing house" for club activities and projects. It provided a meeting ground for the presidents to discuss any problems the clubs might be having and maybe find helpful solutions.

Candy . . .
headaches,
toothaches,
stomach aches.

AFS COMMITTEE: E. J. Bundy, Jane Shackelford, Mrs. Bersha Lewis, Principal Jimmy Williams, Mrs. Kay Marks, Mrs. Edna Wilson, Mrs. Margaret Walker.

The candy sale
had two purposes; the first,
raising the necessary funds for our chapter of American Field Service
to sponsor a foreign exchange student here at Southern Wayne;
the second, to assist in financing
the yearbook.
The sale, a complete success,

fulfilled both its purposes.

The Science Department

took pride in presenting advanced material that would be profound in some colleges. Devoted instructors stimulated the students to find pleasure through curiosity and confusion. Courses such as QPS, physical science, biology, chemistry, physics, and advanced biology which was offered for the first time, were all based largely upon laboratory work. This made concepts more important to the individual.

Scientific interest, developed and promoted through active participation, was the goal of the Science Club. The club sponsored the largest Science Fair in the history of Southern Wayne. Over three hundred projects were displayed. Winners went to the District Science Fair at East Carolina University.

Library.

Its vast collection of over 15,000 books
is kept immaculate by librarians Mrs. Sophia Potts,
Mrs. Doris Sanderson,
Mrs. Katrina Nunn, and the library assistants.

Among the most active of SW's clubs is the Library Club.

Their programs have consisted of trips to the Mount Olive College Library and to the Wayne County Diagnostic Center, a film, and a speaker, Miss Susan Boden, from the Wayne County Public Library. Projects have included displays and bulletin boards, lists of recommended books for college-bound students, and a coffee hour for the teachers during National Library Week.

Home Economics

Outstanding accomplishments of the Home Economics Department included being chosen by the State Department as a model to interpret home economics education within the state of North Carolina.

The department gave students experience, appreciation, and mastery of all the homemaking skills, which included clothing and textiles, food and nutrition, housing and management, and health and home safety.

Students generally discovered that homemaking was not quite as easy as they had thought, but they enjoyed experimenting in sewing and cooking, and experienced a feeling of accomplishment after completing a worthwhile project.

OFFICERS: Mrs. Lena Joyner, Advisor; Glinda Garris, President; Kaye Brogden, Secretary; Phyllis Garris, Historian; Wilma Holland, Reporter; Verlie Davis, Parliamentarian; Jennifer Thornton, Recreation Leader; Mrs. Evadeane Jones, Advisor; Lindsey Raiford, Vice President; Olivia Raper, Treasurer.

Encouraging development of home economics, the Future Homemakers of America participated actively in activities of the state organization and sponsored numerous projects at school. The fair exhibit, "Love That Freezer," captured first place honors at the Wayne County Fair. In December, one hundred dolls from the Salvation Army were dressed by interested FHA'ers for needy children. The Christmas Door Decorations contest was again sponsored by the FHA, with prizes awarded for the most original and decorative. The State FHA Rally brought honors to two of SW's FHA members, Roxie Massengill and Phyllis Garner, who were awarded their State Homemaker's Degrees.

A Job Well Done!

The Southern Wayne Agricultural Department and Future Farmers of America deserve unlimited praise for their outstanding accomplishments this year. Buster Smith received the Outstanding Camper of the Week Award at the summer forestry camp. Under the leadership of President Chris Thompson and Advisors Raeford Daughtry, John Boyette, and R. K. Jernigan, the FFA received the Federation Banner for the fourth consecutive year, and state and national recognition.

Baseball

demands more teamwork than most spring sports. The individual judgment of each player must coincide with that of his teammates.

As in all sports, baseball has its outstanding athletes.

This year Bruce Sasser was the only freshman named all conference.

The team ended the year with a 7-7 conference record.

Track

The individual efforts of an athlete can best be measured in track and field events.

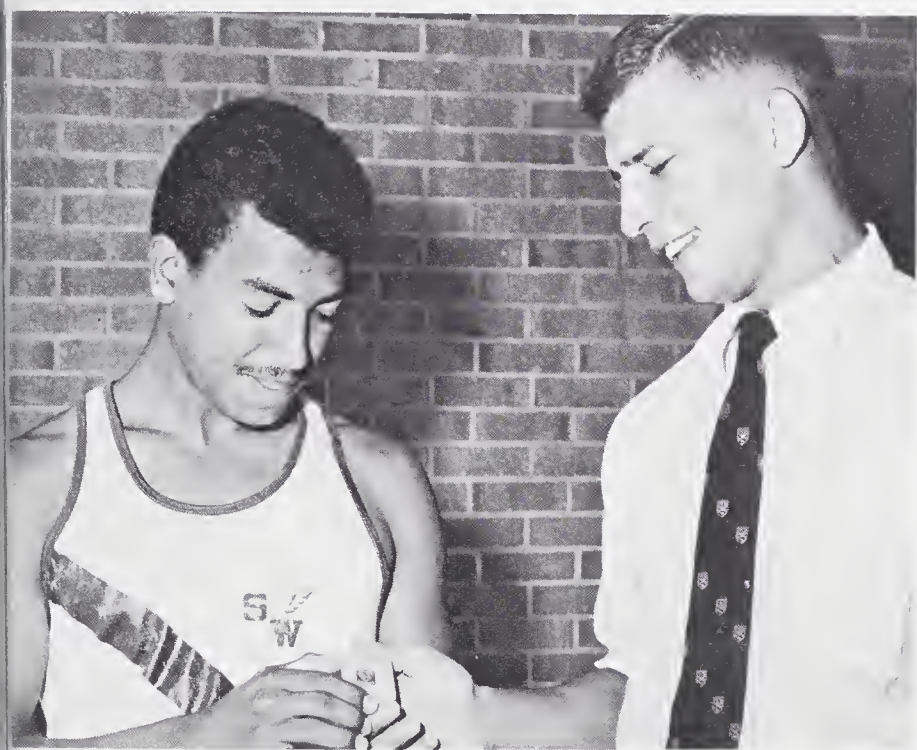

That extra drive and ability is evident when he surges ahead in the final yards of the 100 yard dash or hurls the discus that extra few feet. This drive and ability was best exemplified by Wiley Mozingo, who received all conference and all east honors, and Neal Hines, who received all conference and all east second team honors. The team placed first in three of their six track meets.

Row 1: Jesse Faison, Dennis Stringfield, Thad Ficken, J. B. Harrell, Johnny Wiley, Robert Bizzell, Alan Jackson. Row 2: Manager Pete Kornegay, Jeff Davis, Ricky Graham, Karl Frederick, Carl Thompson, Mike Wilson, Charlie Marks, Neal Hines, Devoux Olliver. Row 3: Jimmy Tillman, Ray Peterson, Wiley Mozingo, David Wilson, Grey Cox, Tommy Lamb, Whit Porter, Worth Wilson, John Cox, Coach Gene Brewer.

Wiley Mozingo: Second in State Broad Jump

Golf

is a game of precise movements and often tests the nerves as well as the skill of the athlete. The well-placed drives and the accurate putting of Tom Semaske enabled him to have the best score in conference play. The team finished second three times and third once.

Tennis

began its second year with good potential and high hopes. Coached by Norman Clark, the girls finished with a 3-2 record while the boys ended with 1-4. Graduates Jane Shackelford and Milton Nowell will be missed next year, but there are strong players returning to replace them.

Row 1: Ann Walker, Jane Shackelford, Rose King Row 2: Kathy Hill, Gail Shackelford, Vicki Best, Mary Jo Bundy.

Row 1: Martin Sutton, Milton Nowell, Phil Miller. Row 2: Ricky Jackson, Michael Parker, Warren Crumpler.

OFFICERS: Advisors Jimmy Adams and Russ Cotton; Hain Ficken, President; Tommy Lamb, Vice President; Roy Whitfield, Secretary; Mark Lownes, Treasurer.

Added to the variety of Southern Wayne's clubs
is the newly-formed

Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

With the aid of Mr. Johnny Clements, district representative, the club was able to hold its first meeting in April.
The club members have worked diligently striving to bring the athlete in a more direct association with God.
They have already completed one project,
a car wash to help them raise money.

the ordinary hum-drum of their daily schedules by attending the many and varied assemblies that were held.

Leaders are more than persons with fancy titles; they are individuals who use their talents, abilities, efforts and hearts to enhance their influential positions for the betterment of mankind. Leaders have that inborn desire to undertake more challenging positions as time goes on. Thus are the personalities of Assistant Principal Russ Cotton and Guidance Counselor Ruth Gardner, who have accepted new roles outside the halls of Southern Wayne. These leaders have consciously and unconsciously contributed much to Southern Wayne's total program of growth.

Seniors

The unique and varied activities devised by the Senior Class left every senior with happy memories of capricious and solemn moments that were experienced this year. Southern Wayne's largest senior class was also the first to have its graduation outside. Through their efforts, the school received partitions for the halls. When the time came for Southern Wayne's first freshman class to depart, the class left with feelings of joy, hope, and regret.

Graduation is the end of four years

(maybe more) that may have been — good — bad — mediocre but they're over.

You may never appreciate these "best years" but you'll relive them in the time to come.

For the price of endless months and many dollars you've bought your ticket to the Real World, and you're leaving (beneath a mass of caps and gowns and threatening weather) this little closed community.

While listening to the words of Superintendent Charles Yelverton, our former principal, you try to sit quietly and not notice the friendly faces, the stormy weather, the grass on the football field—sights you may never see again.
